2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	Data is collected at various times throughout the year to make needed adjustments and move forward. We looked at teacher feedback from staff surveys, grade level/group meetings, Action Team Meetings, Lighthouse Meetings, and parent feedback from surveys
What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people's knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question "What do people think they know, believe, or can do?")	The perception data supports our current academic and school environment goals. This data tells us that we are on the right path towards successfully achieving our goals. This data allows the school to determine next steps, areas of improvement, and areas of strength. Listed below is our school climate data from year 2017 to the current year 2018: 2017 CCRPI Survey Total: 79.361 Student Response: 73.587 Personnel Response: 79.167 Parent Response: 85.329 2018 CCRPI Survey Total: 80.40 Student Response: 70.33 Personnel Response: 83.27 Parent Response: 87.58 2019 CCRPI Survey Total-74.8 School Climate Score-96.9
What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops)	As we continue to strive to reach our goals, there are a multitude of measures that we look at. For grades 3-5, we use the Georgia Milestones scores, along with their Reading Inventory, Dibels and STAR math scores. For grades K-2, we look at their Dibels scores and Reading Inventory Scores.

What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question “What did you do for whom?”)	Our data allows the team and teachers to understand where a student currently is academically and where they need to be. We are able to provide interventions based on what the data shows. The data also provides us with the guidance in developing our yearly goals and School Improvement Plan.

What achievement data did you use?	When looking at achievement, we look at the previous years and the current year Milestones, Reading Inventory, STAR Math, and Dibels.
------------------------------------	---

What does your achievement data tell you?	Looking at both the previous year's and current year's data, we are able to identify growth and areas of improvement. We are able to look at grade level data and also individual student data.
---	---

What demographic data did you use?	With Infinite Campus we are able to identify the demographics of the entire school, grade levels, and individual classes.
------------------------------------	---

What does the demographic data tell you?	We are able to determine the culture and needs of students who are coming to our school. We are able to identify students who have frequent tardies and absences, along with the percentage of students who receive free and reduced lunch. We are also able to determine the students who receive ESOL and SPED services.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	On average Spring Hill is operational as a whole. Spring Hill has several trends in place. The MTSS process and team have undergone changed and are tasked with communicating and carrying out the process to fruition. This is a strong process and very beneficial for teachers and students. We have implemented Data Digs and collaborative planning with our instructional coach through PLC (Professional Learning Communities). Through our Data Digs and collaborative planning, grade levels have the opportunity to look at specific data, analyze the data and determine next steps to successfully support student success. This process is a positive approach in supporting both teacher and student success.
Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Currently, Spring Hill has a strong structure for collaboration and leadership. The next steps for the school, would be to continue the collaboration process with the utilization of intentional and regularly conducted PLCs incorporating our Instructional Coach.
Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Important positive trends: Collaborative Planning, Action Team Meetings PBIS, Leader in Me, District IST's, and school Instructional Coaches. Needs: Continue to focus on Math and ELA best practices to best support teachers and students.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Spring Hill has maintained a strong relationship with our community engagement. We have increased our number of parent and student academic workshops along with a number of other events that encourage collaboration between the faculty and staff, parents, students and the community. We will continue to grow our programs to support family engagement.
Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Spring Hill uses flexible seating, flexible grouping, WIN Time, use of SAIL room, use of makerspace, courtyard, and after school STEAM.
Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Spring Hill has a large population of free and reduced lunch. The majority of the parents work full time jobs, Professional Learning in culturally responsive training and book study Culturlize to close the achievement gap in culturally and linguistically diverse students.
Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Historically, Milestone scores of minority subgroups indicate an achievement gap in both ELA and math. Milestones scores indicate that many of our students are below grade level in both reading and math. Milestones reports allow teachers to analyze individual students areas of strength and weakness. As we looked at Milestones score reports and other pieces of data, we determined that teachers need to understand how to effectively teach diverse learners and how to provide appropriate intervention. Teachers and leaders will be provided with professional development that will provide best practices for both math and ELA instruction, while also understanding how to effectively teach diverse students. As we move into the 2021-2022 school year, teachers, leaders and staff members will focus on providing interventions in ELA and math that will support an increase in math and ELA milestone scores.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	Through the Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners we are provided with staff and tangible items to support the individual students and their learning.
Challenges	With large percentages of Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children and English Learners, it becomes challenging to maintain balance with providing an equal amount of support for your on grade level learners.

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.1 Stakeholders, Serving Children, PQ

Required Questions

1 In developing this plan, briefly describe how the school sought advice from individuals (teachers, staff, other school leaders, paraprofessionals, specialized instructional support personnel, parents, community partners, and other stakeholders) was accomplished.	Spring Hill formed a team of certified and classified staff. This team met at various times through the year and parents shared their concerns and thoughts along with teachers and administration . As a team we discussed steps for the 2021-2022 school year.
2 Describe how the school will ensure that low-income and minority children enrolled in the Title I school are not served at disproportionate rates by ineffective, out-of-field, or inexperienced teachers.	Spring Hill Elementary ensures through the interview process that only effective and highly qualified teachers are placed in the classrooms. Teachers are observed and monitored through the TKES system. Title I paraprofessionals will be monitored by their supervising teachers and the Title I teachers will be monitored and evaluated by administration. Instruction will be differentiated to meet the needs of all students in the classroom. Teachers and students will be provided with materials and resources to implement effective and engaging instruction.
3 Provide a general description of the Title I instructional program being implemented at this Title I School. Specifically define the subject areas to be addressed and the instructional strategies/methodologies to be employed to address the identified needs of the most academically at-risk students in the school. Please include services to be provided for students living in local institutions for neglected or delinquent children (if applicable).	The Title I instructional program is an integral part of the success of all students at Spring Hill Elementary. As we move forward to the 2021-2022 school year, as a Title I team we decided to continue our focus on the implementation of math and ELA instruction and building a culture and climate that is safe, effective, engaging and diversely supportive. To ensure that all students are supported, a variety of strategies will be implemented. To ensure that all students are supported, Spring Hill will employ Title I paraprofessionals with Title I funding. The paraprofessionals will work based on a push in model, in which they will work within the classroom in areas of need. There will also be a new implementation of Tile I teachers. Title I teachers will be used in a pull out and push in models. During our grade level intervention time, students will be pulled to work with the Title I teachers on intense intervention. The Tile I paraprofessionals and teachers will be utilized to ensure that our most academically at-risk students are provided with academic support. Title I will begin the implementation of a morning intervention period in which Title I paraprofessionals and teachers will work with small groups of students in math and reading fluency. A series of Parent University courses will be offered to parents. This series will be provide strategies on how parents can best support their students in academic areas. Spring Hill will continue to host student led conferences. This will allow students and parents to stay informed of student progress and next steps. Students will share their current reading and math levels, where their levels should be and what steps they need to take to sure that they meet their goals. Parents will stay informed of their individual child's academic progress and

	how teachers and staff are ensuring that they are being provided with support. Through the Leader in Me program, along with the county's PBIS initiative, students will be engaged and immersed in character education and leadership instruction. The instruction will further support our school culture and climate. Our Title I parent liason will provide a backpack program, a parent supply checkout system, homework help and a variety of other outreach opportunities along with constant communication and support to parents.

4 If applicable, provide a description of how teachers, in constation with parents, administrators, and pupil services personnel, will identify eligible children most in need of services in Title I targeted assistance schools/programs. Please include a description of how the school will develop and implement mtiple (a minimum of 2) objective, academic-based performance criteria to rank students for service. Also include a description of the measurable scale (point system) that uses the objective criteria to rank all students.	To ensure that our most at-risk students are provided with Title I services, we will use a variety of data collection and a teacher ranking. Teachers rank students based on their most current Reading Inventory Scores, Star Math Scores and if Applicable Georgia Milestones Scores. Teachers also provide a teacher recommendation score. Students with the highest scores are considered the most at-risk students

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.2 PQ, Federally Identified Schools, CTAE, Discipline

Required Questions

5 If applicable, describe how the school will support, coordinate, and integrate services with early childhood programs at the school level, including strategies for assisting preschool children in the transition from early childhood education programs to local elementary school programs.	All pre-school students at Spring Hill and rising kindergarten students are provided with Summer Bridge Books to help prepare students for Kindergarten. Spring Hill also implements a Summer Kindergarten Camp. This camp provides students with the opportunity to adjust to the expectations of Kindergarten and to assess current levels and needs
6 If applicable, describe how the school will implement strategies to facilitate effective transitions for students from middle grades to high school and from high school to postsecondary education including: Coordination with institutions of higher education, employers, and local partners; and Increased student access to early college, high school, or dual or concurrent enrollment opportunities or career counseling to identify student interest and skills.	N/A
7 Describe how the school will support efforts to reduce the overuse of discipline practices that remove students from the classroom, specifically addressing the effects on all subgroups of students.	Through the school's implementation of Leader in Me and PBIS, students will be immersed in character education programs. Both programs focus on leadership and positive behavior. Focusing on instilling leadership skills and focusing on positive reinforcement, students are less likely to engage in negative behavior and discipline issues. Administration, Teachers and staff members provide expectations for all students. Students are aware of these expectations, as well as the consequences if the expectations are not met. Leader In Me has proven to decrease disciplinary issues and negative behavior, while promoting leadership and positive behavior.
