

NAME	MISSION/PURPOSE	FACULTY ADVISOR(S)	ACTIVITIES	COMPETITIVE, ACADEMIC, SERVICE, HONORS, SOCIAL
Academic Team	To use academic knowledge to compete and excel.	Nancy Close	Competive team that is involved in Hi-Q style competitions.	Competitive
Academic Bowl for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing	Fostering the pursuit of academic excellence, promoting a spirit of academic competition & sportsmanship, & providing social opportunities for the development of collegiality& lifelong friendship amongst deaf & hard of hearing HS students.	Cindy Hartpence, Samandra Vilvado	Regonal and National Competitions between Deaf and Hard of Hearing students throughout the United States.	Competitive, Academic
Art Club (aka SMArt Club)	To create more art awareness and opportunity in the school and community for students in the visual arts through projects, fundraisers, art shows, etc.	Todd Little	Plan and create murals/projects, organize art shows from field trips, promote SMArt clothing labels, & print Tshirts. All proceeds accrued are used to purchase art materials.	Academic
Campus Cadre	Create a culture where students can connect with God while forming healthy relationships with their peers.	Jason Flowers	Group will meet on a weekly basis and consist of an icebreaker game and then a small encouraging message.	Social
Chess Club	Educate members on how to play chess and meet people with common interests.	Tara Burnette, Shad Genovese	Chess Club meets after school twice a month to play/learn to play chess.	Competitive/Social
Chick-fil-A Leader Academy	To develop leadership and community service.	Aaron Buck	This organization focuses on Impact through Action. We will throughout the year learn valuable leadership skills and use those skills performing service projects in the community.	Competitive/Service
Close-Up Club	To promote the Close-Up Washington DC experience and encourage political involvement.	Jon Gloer, Diane Ruane	Learn the importance of responsibility in keeping the requirements of membership, gain experience in service to others, and learn leadership skills by becoming an officer in the club.	Academic
Debate Team	To promote and foster public speaking and critical thinking	Terence Fitzgerald	Competitive team involved in Debate and public speaking competitions through the Georgia and National Speech and Debate Association.	Competitive

Starr's Mill High School Clubs 2019-20

Eco Club	To create a more efficient recycling program and encourage the SMHS community to be more environmentally conscious.	Robin Huggins	Open discussions and actions regarding current concerns regarding SMHS students, faculty and staff impact upon the local environment based on daily activities.	Service
Econ Club	To discuss current events and policies and analyze how they impact us. We will also prepare for The Economics Challenge, a nationwide academic competition.	Mark DeCourcy	Current event discussions and study in Macro, Micro and International economics.	Competitive/Academic
Ex Libris	Ex Libris, SMHS's book club, promotes reading for pleasure outside the classroom and discusses various aspects of literature.	Rick Wright, Lela Crowder	Discussion of outside readings and reading within the curriculum as well.	Academic
Family, Career & Community Leaders of America (FCCLA)	To promote personal growth and leadership development through family and consumer science education.	Hope Via	Meet and share new and innovative ways to improve personal/family life via Family and Consumer Sciences	Academic
FCA/FCS (Fellowship of Christian Athletes/Students)	To facilitate communication between Christian athletes and students.	Amy Evert, Walt Ellison	Discuss ways to deal with the challenges and time demands of school athletics and active community schedules. Provide needed services to the community.	Service
Film Club	To get more students inspired/eager to work in the movie industry.	Whitney Shoemaker	To analyze films/movies, and create interest in the movie industry.	Academic
French Club	Create enthusiasm for and an understanding of francophone culture.	Jill Snelgrove	Meet to discuss how the curriculum helps inform them of the French Culture. Meet and share cultural activities.	Academic
Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA)	To bring business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovation leadership and career development programs.	Jeff Klein, Zach Mann	Meet with local and national business members; discuss business models and ways to become successful in business.	Academic
Gay/Straight Alliance	To foster dialogue and friendship between the Gay and Straight communities at SMHS.	Brandon Kendall	Discussions regarding current issues facing the Gay and Straight communities.	Social
German Club	To seek to promote the German language and the cultures of German-speaking countries.	Antonela Brkic	Meet to discuss how the curriculum helps inform them to the German culture. Meet and share cultural activities.	Academic

Starr's Mill High School Clubs 2019-20

German Honor Society	The society's mission is to recognize high student achievement in German and to promote a continuity of interest in Germanic studies.	Antonela Brkic	Meet to discuss how the curriculum helps inform them of the German culture. Meet and share cultural activities. Work on giving back to the community through service.	Honors
History Bowl	The mission is to compete in historical, economic, and government knowledge through the history bowl format.	Rebecca Rickeard, Susan King	Meet to practice and to compete in various history bowl opportunities.	Academic
History Club	The mission is to foster the student's love of history outside the classroom.	Joe Bara, Aaron Buck, Susan King, Rebecca Rickeard	Our goal is to build on the quality engagement that the students receive in the classroom by making real world connections to the history they learn as well as be active participants in improving our community.	Academic
HOSA	To promote career opportunities in the health care industry and to enhance the delivery of quality health care to all people.	Julie McKenna	Activities include a yearly blood drive, visiting local senior living facility, Walk to End Alzheimers, Student Series with Luekemia and Lymphoma Society, competitions to show off skills learned in the healthcare class, guest speakers in the healthcare field, and much more.	Academic
Interactive Storytelling Club	Promote and preserve the art of creative storytelling through the medium of adventure board games.	Terence Fitzgerald	Language Arts is essentially storytelling. This club will attempt to bring storytelling alive through its meetings. The meetings will consist of discussions on topics such as character creating, sensory detailing, word choices and storyline creation, which are all skills pertinent to Language Arts.	Academic
Interact Club	Interact is Rotary International's service club for young people ages 14-18. Interact Clubs are sponsored by individual Rotary Clubs, which provide support and guidance.	Marcela Sample	Interact is your chance to make new friends, improve your community, develop leadership skills, and make a difference in the world.	Service
International Thespian Society	To recognize excellence in the theater.	Savahna Silvas	Attend state and national conference where students can compete for college scholarships, acting and technical events at the state level to qualify for nationals. Students also participate in acting and/or tech workshops with professional instructors.	Academic

Starr's Mill High School Clubs 2019-20

Japanese Club	To learn the Japanese culture.	Valerie Hughey	Learn about Japanese culture through food, camaraderie with Japanese students and Japan Fest, a cultural event in September.	Academic
JOI Club (Junior Optimist International - formerly Octagon Club)	Service organization associated with the Peachtree City Optimist Club.	Sean Hickey	Service projects centered on youth.	Service
Key Club	An international student-led organization which provides its members with opportunities to provide service, build character, and develop leadership.	Heather McNally, Nancy Close	Fundraising activities, community service, donation and philanthropy.	Service
Lego Robotics Club	To inspire teens to be science and technology leaders and innovators using 21st Century skills. Also relates to CTAE Technology pathway as well as science curriculum.	Rick Wright	Club meets in the SMHS Media Center before school on a monthly basis.	Academic
Math Team	To encourage students to explore mathematical concepts in a competition setting and to promote the love of math.	JB Campbell, Wendy Willoughby, Michelle Genovese	Compete in math competitions.	Competitive
Model U.N.	To promote international awareness and practice collaborating with others to establish and host a model of the United Nations where we discuss solutions to current international issues.	Bonnie Stanford	Club meets once a month on Thursday afternoon.	Academic
Multicultural Club	This club offers its members an opportunity to explore ethnic diversity.	Sean Hickey	Meet and share cultural and ethnic information and life style issues. Discuss how culture plays a part in the school environment and curriculum.	Academic
National Beta Club	Let us lead by serving others.	Kristin Peavyhouse, Bonnie Stanford, Chris Kesterson	Follow the guidelines and activities (service projects, monthly meetings, etc.) of the national club on a local level.	Honors

Starr's Mill High School Clubs 2019-20

National French Honor Society	The aim of this organization is to stimulate interest in the study of French, to promote high standards of scholarship, to reward scholastic achievements, and to create enthusiasm for and an understanding of francophone culture.	Jill Snelgrove	Meet and share language and cultural activities that promote the study of foreign language.	Honors
National Honor Society	To create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of this school.	Kelly Corallo, Diane Ruane	Discuss ways that service improves character. Fundraising for the benefit of the school and the local community.	Honors
National Technical Honor Society	Scholastic recognition for career tech.	Hope Via, Julie McKenna	NTHS honors the achievements of top CTE students, provides scholarships to encourage the pursuit of high education and cultivates excellence in today's highly competitive, skilled workforce.	Academic
PALS	To include all students in becoming an active participant in the student body.	Jodi Christensen, Shannon Gagliano, Laura Harbin, Cindy Hartpence, Kristie Hayward, Juliana Wright	A club that fosters relationships between students with and without disabilities through group activities within and outside of school. PALS hopes to allow all students the opportunity to experience the benefits of friendship, teamwork, and responsibility through school and non-school related activities.	Service
Panther Squadron Aviation Club	To promote student interest in aviation and aerospace while supporting local aviation organizations.	Jason Flowers	Provide students with the opportunity to connect science, math, engineering and history to real work applications. The club will visit local aviation/aerospace-related sites to provide real world relevance to school curriculum.	Academic
Philosophy & Society Club	Encourage and facilitate critical thinking about current events through philosophy.	Sean Hickey	Give students exposure to new viewpoints of the world and an outlet to discuss them to develop individuality.	Academic
PRISM	To promote international business skills.	Jeffery Klein	Operate school store, balance books, exchange goods and import and export items with foreign countries. Meet and compete with other PRISM clubs.	Academic

Starr's Mill High School Clubs 2019-20

The Prowler (newspaper)	The Prowler, the student-run production from the newspaper-journalism class of SMHS, is an open forum intended to accurately and reliably report on events, both local and national, that are of interest to its readers, which includes the student body, the community, and the general public. News is reported through a variety of mediums to provide timely, accurate updates without bias to race, religion or social creed.	Justin Spencer	Research, write, edit and publish The Prowler.	Academic
Russian Club	Learn the Russian language and more about the Russian culture.	Mark DeCourcy	Learn the Russian language.	Academic
Science Olympiad	To promote high levels of achievement and use problem-solving skills to compete with other schools in science-based events, including the areas of: Life Science, Environmental Science, Earth Science, Physical Science, Chemistry, Technology & Engineering, and Experimental Design.	Ann Whitley	Compete with other high schools in Georgia at Invitational Tournaments as well as Regional Tournament. Possibly advance to State and National Tournaments. Events include such activities as Chemistry Lab, Forensics, Technical Problem-solving, Circuit design, coding, engineering builds (airplane design, vehicle design), Protein Modeling, and tests in the areas of Cell Biology, Anatomy and Physiology, Fossils, and Astronomy.	Competitive/Academic
SkillsUSA	Empower its members to become world-class workers, leaders and responsible American citizens. SkillsUSA improves the quality of American's skilled workforce through a structured program of citizenship, leadership, employability, technical and professional skills training.	Patt Coleman	Attend meetings and competitions.	Competitive
Social Tech Club	This club is designed to encourage students to connect with other students with interest in video games to talk about the games and play them together versus in isolation. The design of the club is for students to interact with other students who share a love of gaming.	Laura Harbin & Amanda Morton	Club meets in room 820 on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. We currently have an Xbox & Wii, and students are welcome to bring their own devices to share with the club.	Social

Spanish Club	To promote the Spanish language culture in and around the community.	Shayne Thompson	Meet and discuss how the curriculum helps inform them of the Spanish Culture. Meet and share cultural activities.	Academic
Spanish Honor Society	The society's mission is to recognize high student achievement in Spanish and to promote a continuity of interest in Hispanic studies.	Amber Boyd	Meet to discuss how the curriculum helps inform them of the Spanish Culture. Meet and share cultural activities.	Honors
Student Government Association	The Student Government Association of SMHS is the official voice for all students. Our goal is to enhance student life through leadership and communication.	Whitney Shoemaker, Ashley Collins	Organize homecoming activities including choosing the theme, facilitating the parade and coordinating the half-time show. Additionally, SGA handles all school-wide elections.	Service
TSA (Technology Student Association)	The Technology Student Association (TSA) enhances personal development, leadership, and career opportunities in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM), whereby members apply and integrate these concepts through intracurricular activities, competitions, and related programs.	Rob Bell	Participate in four conferences and monthly activities during the school year, as well as, activities such as VEX robotics competitions, EV race, and community-service.	Academic
TED Talk	Provide a platform through which students may share their ideas and learn how to present talks in the format of TedEd Talks.	Dan Gant	Provide an opportunity for people to share ideas and organize annual TED events to foster the development of further ideas.	Academic
Teen Republicans	An active organization of like-minded, conservative students; advance the views of the Republican Party; raise awareness of current issues; provide valuable opportunities for Republicans at SMHS to become politically active.	Diane Ruane	Conduct service projects at a local level (Fayette County Republican Party) throughout the school year.	Academic/Social
UGA Hero	This is a philanthropic organization that raises money to help kids who have been affected or infected with AIDS.	Nancy Close	A variety of fundraising activities ranging from sales to services that will raise profits for contributions to children affected by AIDS.	Service

Starr's Mill High School Clubs 2019-20

Yearbook ("The Pride")	To teach students how to design, write, edit, publish and sell The Pride.	Patt Coleman	Students will design, write, edit, publish The Pride. They will also work with local businesses on ad space and learn to work within a budget. They will receive professional training by the yearbook publisher as well as their representative.	Academic
Young Democrats	Student-run organization of Democrats in a predominantly conservative community; advance the views of the Democratic party; raise awareness of current issues and provide opportunities for Democratic students to become politically active.	Diane Ruane	Participate in numerous service projects at a local level (Fayette County Democratic Party) throughout the year.	Academic/Social
Class of 2020	Coordinate and fundraise for all activities regarding the senior class.	Karla Shaeffer, Wendy Willoughby, Hope Via, Todd Little	Promote school and class spirit. Coordinate activities for the Class of 2020.	Service
Class of 2021	Coordinate and fundraise for all activities regarding the junior class.	Shannon Gagliano, Valerie Hughey, Jodi Christensen, Susan King, Shayne Thompson, Melissa Beaulieu, Nikki Moore	Promote school and class spirit. Coordinate activities for the Class of 2021.	Service
Class of 2022	Coordinate and fundraise for all activities regarding the sophomore class.	Kelli Kalen, Mary Lehman, Laurie Davis, Kelly Metcalf, Mandy Morton, Stacy Nichols	Promote school and class spirit. Coordinate activities for the Class of 2022.	Service
Class of 2023	Coordinate and fundraise for all activities regarding the freshman class.	JB Campbell, Todd Little, Julie McKenna	Promote school and class spirit. Coordinate activities for the Class of 2023.	Service