

FAYETTE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS
EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN'S SERVICES
INVITES YOU TO ATTEND THE 2023-24
FAMILY ENGAGEMENT LEARNING SERIES

Thursday, Sept. 21, 2023 - 8:30-11:30: Diving into Parent Rights

- Part 1 - Understanding Your Parental Rights & Procedural Safeguards
- Part 2 - Clarifying the IEP Process & Learning about Facilitated IEP Meetings
- Part 3 - Exploring the GaDOE Special Education & Family Engagement Websites

Thursday, Nov. 16, 2023, 8:30-11:30: Understanding Evaluation Components

- Part 1 - Assessments & Score Interpretations with Characteristics of Psychological Processing and/or Speech-Language Deficits
- Part 2 - Strategies to Help Your Child at Home with Reading, Writing, Math, and Language Activities and Age Specific Resources

Thursday, Feb. 15, 2024, 12:00-3:00 PM: Student Self-Determination Skills

- Part 1 - Teaching Students to Self-Advocate
- Part 2 - Determining which Accommodations and/or Modifications Help
- Part 3 - Using Assistive Technology as a Self-Help Tool

Thursday, April 18, 2024, 12:00-3:00 PM: Transition to Post-Secondary Life

- Part 1 - Looking Ahead with Long Term Planning - Guest Presenter Mr. James McCarten, Esq.
- Part 2 - Exploring Post-Secondary Programs in Georgia for Continuing Education

All sessions will be held at the Lafayette Education Center, 205 Lafayette Ave., Fayetteville, GA, inside Building D's Media Center (Building D is closest to Tiger Trail)

Please use the QR Code Below to Register for One or All of the Family Engagement Series Sessions.

ECS Family Engagement Learning Series - A Partnership between Home and School Creating a Collaborative System of Caring and Communicating to Assist Parents in Helping Their Child to Succeed at School and in Life.

