The PTO is seeking volunteers for January 31st Duty-Free Lunch. Duty Free lunches are an easy way to volunteer at our school. Once a month with enough parent volunteers (4), teachers do not have to supervise our children during lunch. As a duty-free lunch volunteer, all you have to do is walk around the cafeteria and keep an eye on the students. Please sign up! <https://www.signupgenius.com/FRMSJanuaryDutyFreeLunch>

Applications are being accepted for the Jr BETA Club at Flat Rock.

If you are interested, you may go the FRMS website and get an application form or stop by room 709 (Mrs. Evans) or 804 (Mrs. M. Williams).

All applications are due by January 31st.

Do you question whether your child is glued to a screen for too long? Is my child's screen use "normal" for kids their age? Or has our whole country gone insane, raising a generation of children who are dangerously addicted to any and every screen? Here is an article that may help ease your mind and provide better insight on how to manage screen time.

In conjunction with Law Enforcement Appreciation Month, the Fayette County Board of Education recognized our SROs at the school board meeting this past Tuesday, January 21st. Investigator Justin Storm along with fellow Fayette County SROs were recognized with a certificate of appreciation and a gift donated by a local business. We thank Investigator Storm for his years of service and value his position here at Flat Rock.

Congratulations to our own Mrs. Christina Rufenacht, who is our Flat Rock Teacher of the Year, and now, as of this week, she is one of the top three finalists for the Fayette County Teacher of the Year! The winner will be named in April at the recognition ceremony. Congratulations again, Ms. Rufenacht! We are proud of you!

Noelle Boyd and our Symphonic Band did an outstanding job representing Flat Rock, this past Monday, at the MLK celebration program at Sams Auditorium.
