IMPORTANT NEWS AND REMINDERS

- Rising 10th and 11th graders: Model Atlanta Regional Commission (MARC) is a great opportunity for high school students interested in important issues facing the Atlanta region. If you are passionate about issues facing Atlanta and would like to grow your leadership skills, apply for the program today. The program is free to attend. Applications are due May 19, 2023. See this website for information and application.

- % 2024 senior portraits: rising seniors, schedule your senior portraits with BPI! Portraits will be taken in the WHS gym. Students need to sign up for an appointment on the BPI website. The portrait dates are: May 13th, May 20th, and June 9th. Click here to book your appointment.

- % 2024: rising seniors, we will be visiting your English class on May 10th to discuss preparing for senior year. Remember, you have access to Naviance (through classlink) that is our college and career readiness tool. You can search for scholarships in Naviance→colleges at the top→scholarship search.

- Current seniors: Check out our website under news for "Senior Save the Dates". School Counselors will be in your English class on May 15th to discuss ordering extra transcripts, mental health in college/military/workforce, graduation procedures. The senior exit survey that you received from the school district on April 24, 2023 needs to be completed.

- Current students: Kennesaw State University is offering a free virtual summer workshop on Holocaust Studies June 26-June 29. If you have an interest in history, education, human rights, and/or the university-based experience, apply online here. Application deadline is June 16, 2023.

- Script to Screen summer camp: empowering young story artists to bring their ideas to life. This camp runs July 10-21, 9:30am-5pm at Trilith Shipyard in Fayetteville. Open to ages 13-18. For information and to register, visit this website.
