2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	Georgia School Climate data was collected this year. Perception data based on the Georgia School Climate indicates most students like school the majority of the time and feel they do well in school. Students believe that the school wants them to be successful and that there are clear rules for behavior. Students feel safe and are treated with respect. Students do not always feel good behavior is recognized with an average of 37% of students in grades 3-5 noting that good behavior is "Always" noticed. Often students in classrooms behave in a positive manner allowing teachers to teach. This is an area that requires some focus. We want students to "Always" feel students behave allowing teachers to teach. Students do not feel they are victimized by their peers for the most part. Staff have been informally surveyed regarding their perceptions about school culture, organization and process, school improvement and school / teacher expectations. Teachers were informally surveyed about general operations and staff morale.
What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people's knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question "What do people think they know, believe, or can do?")	Informal Survey Data indicates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Teachers feel supported by other teachers, there are high standards for achievement, academic success is promoted for all students, teachers work hard to make certain all students do well, teachers feel safe at school, students get along well with the teachers and other adults. *Parents feel teachers have high standards for achievement, feel that their student(s) feel safe at school, they feel welcome at school and that the school building is well maintained. *Parents feel communication has improved at the school level. *Staff perception data indicates that the Crabapple Lane community is caring. Students are cared for while at school and teachers work hard to meet the needs of students. Staff were not asked to attend as many meetings this past year, which improved staff morale. Teachers are gaining greater input into decision making at the school level. Consistent expectations and a clear vision have been communicated and teachers are appreciative of that increased communication. Greater collaboration between teachers was a focus this year with the implementation of PLCs.

What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops)	School Improvement Plan from 2021-2022, PBIS-SWIS, Discipline reports, Safety Plan, Master Schedule, TKES Summatives and Professional Learning Schedule. Crabapple Lane did resume "normal" operations for the most part in terms of community events, clubs, some volunteerism at the school level, etc.

What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question "What did you do for whom?")	Areas of growth for teachers and students: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Instructional planning time needs to be protected and additional planning time provided. *PLC time will continue to be provided and emphasized each week with a focus on curriculum and instruction. *Increased communication with stakeholders and increased opportunities for community interaction will be a focus. *Teachers would like Professional Learning to be offered in small mini-sessions that meet their needs.

What achievement data did you use?	RI, STAR Math, Dibels, GKIDS, benchmark data, progress monitoring throughout the year, Milestones results
------------------------------------	---

What does your achievement data tell you?	The data indicates that there is a need for continued Professional Learning Communities with an emphasis on curriculum and instruction. There is also a need for improved collaborative planning where teachers serve as a resource for each other. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Georgia Milestones data indicates that writing (Ideas and Development and Language, Usage and Conventions) should be a tier 1 instructional focus area for all grades. *The number of students that fall into the remediate category for Literary Text and Informational Text declined in grades 3 and 4. *Georgia Math Milestones data indicates that numbers and operations should be areas of focus for grades 3-5. *Georgia Milestones ELA data indicates that Literary Text and Information Text are areas that should continue to be an area of emphasis in grades 3-5. *88% of students in grades 3-5 passed the reading portion of the Georgia Milestones. This indicates a need for collaborative planning between homeroom teachers and support staff and an increase in authentic literacy. *RI data from spring 2022 indicates the following: 2nd grade - 0% Below Basic, 7% Basic, 32% Proficient, 61% Advanced 3rd grade - 8% Below Basic, 10% Basic, 31% Proficient, 52% Advanced 4th grade - 3% Below Basic, 10% Basic, 39% Proficient, 48% Advanced 5th grade - 6% Below Basic, 17% Basic, 21% Proficient, 56% Advanced STAR Math data from spring 2022 indicates the following student growth percentiles: 1st grade -49% of students with student growth percentile of 50% or higher 2nd grade -46% of students with student growth percentile of 50% or higher

What demographic data did you use?	Infinite Campus reports, FTE reports, Attendance, Enrollment data
------------------------------------	---

What does the demographic data tell you?	*SWD students are at 11%, including Pre-K students. *Gifted students - 21% of student population. *Tier 2 students - 21%; Tier 3 students - 5% *Free and Reduced Lunch -Unable to measure this year due to lack of free and reduced lunch paperwork requirements. *62% of students were absent from school 5 or more days. 3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Moving forward, we will continue to focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Initiating and managing change to improve staff performance and student learning. * Building leadership capacity through shared decision making and problem solving.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. We will emphasize interventions should be targeted to specific students and needs.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The school does not lack in financial or human resources to support the needs of students. School enrollment has slowly increased over the last five years. Students participating in programs such as EIP, ESOL and Special Education are making gains, but an achievement gap still exists. Students who enter new to our school frequently present with academic and / or behavioral deficits. *12.1% of students in the state of Georgia are considered to be students with disabilities based on 2018-2019 data. Our school serves 11% of the student population in special education. This percentage includes the Sprouts pre-k programs. Our goal is to reduce the number of students served in special education. *26.4% of Georgia's students participate in the Early Intervention program based on 2018-2019 data. 25% of Crabapple students participate in the Early Intervention program. *21% of our students participate in the gifted program. This is above the state average of 11.6% K-12 based on 2018-2019 data. *13.1% of Crabapple Lane students are eligible for free and reduced lunch program prior to Covid. This percentage can not be determined at this time due to lack of paperwork completion by parents / guardians. *Financial (district funded) and human resources will be utilized to support student, teacher and leader needs in the following ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Utilization of support staff to offer additional academic support to students. ● Utilization of district funds and PTO funds to provide substitute teachers for Collaborative Planning purposes as the substitute bank increases in numbers. ● Utilization of the instructional coach to provide guidance and / or professional development for staff based on school needs, i.e. data analysis, assessment practices, etc. ● Utilization of teachers of the gifted to collaborate with teachers on extending student learning.
Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Student achievement data indicates a need for intentional targeted small group instruction to address deficit areas in ELA and Math. The emphasis will be placed on effective tier 1 instruction and assessment practices, especially in writing. Common formative assessments will be utilized to create flexible groups and inform instruction. Extending the learning of students will also be an area of emphasis. We will continue to meet student's needs via our MTSS process with intentional interventions addressing gaps in student understanding and mastery of standards.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	We observed some improvement within subgroups; however, we recognize a need for greater exposure to grade level standards based instruction in ELA and Math and a greater emphasis on acceleration. We will continue to focus on writing for all students and academic vocabulary in all content areas to increase subgroup performance.
Challenges	Gaps exist between our special education, EIP and English learners. As a school, we will continue to support these groups through the utilization of data from summative and formative assessments to improve instruction. Collaborative planning opportunities will be created to allow teachers of special education and ELL students to plan together. Targeted professional learning will be provided to address the specific needs of subgroups.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.2 Identification and Prioritization of Overarching Needs

Use the results of 3.1 to identify the overarching needs of the LEA.
