

REJECTION APPEALS PROCESS

Appeal instructions for students whose applications for membership in the National Honor Society were rejected:

1. Appeals must be filed by the applicant* with the adviser of the McIntosh High School chapter of the National Honor Society. Failure to follow the appeals procedure will result in your appeal being denied.
2. Compose a written appeal in the form of a business letter. Explain why your application should be reconsidered. Make specific references to your scholarship, leadership, character, and service qualities that National Honor Society holds as its core principles.
3. Upon the posting of the new members selected for the National Honor Society, you may file your appeal within 3 days of your application for membership being rejected. Your appeal will be reviewed by the adviser of the National Honor Society and the principal, who will decide whether the appeal is granted and membership in the NHS is offered.
4. You will be notified orally or in writing of their decision within 7 business days.

Please keep in mind the members of the MHS chapter of the NHS are leaders in multiple capacities and as such, only the student/applicant can initiate the appeals process.
