X	X	27/29	Technology	Change the heading "Fayette County 1:1 Chromebook Initiative- Grades 2-12" to: "Fayette County Public Schools Connected Classrooms" "1:1 Chromebook Responsible Use, Grades 2-12" - change paragraph "Photo Library and Media:" to "Photos, Video, and Media: Many online educational resources and digital textbook curriculum content providers now host videos on YouTube. Some examples are the Georgia Department of Education, Khan Academy, Nearpod, and Code.org. Due to this, districts are forced to implement a process that doesn't unblock YouTube, but instead filters the content. Authentic learning opportunities for students include the use of educational videos. The district provides access to an online, digital library which includes videos and many other types of media for instructional purposes. Additionally, teachers may now access the educational content available via YouTube. Content from YouTube will be filtered using restriction level "strict" for elementary and "moderate" for secondary and high schools.
